BOOK SYNOPSIS

Lakota Sioux rancher Dillon Black is slowly working his way back from losing everything he ever cared about. Ultimately, it was the horses that saved him. In his heart, he truly believes in the connection between the wild, majestic breed and the soul of the Lakota people. Now he has a dream--the Mystic Warriors Horse Camp--a place where youth can connect with the Lakota ways. He has the land, the horses, and the history. All he needs is the money. That's where television producer Ella Champion comes in. She works on a reality show where community projects get a makeover. Dillon's ranch could be her next show . . . and he could be exactly the man she needs off-screen. Dillon's ex-wife, Monica, thinks he could use some common sense, but deep down, she feels Dillon's project might heal their shattered family. Especially because she's about to reveal a secret that will change everything. Dillon and their teenage children will need all the help they can get . . . Kathleen Eagle published her first book, a Romance Writers of America Golden Heart Award winner, with Silhouette Books in 1984. Since then she has published nearly 50 books, including historical and contemporary, series and single title, earning her nearly every award in the industry. Her books have consistently appeared on regional and national bestseller lists, including the USA Today list and The New York Times extended bestseller list. Born in Virginia and raised "on the road" as an Air Force brat, Kathleen earned degrees from Mount Holyoke College and Northern State University. She taught at Standing Rock High School in North Dakota for 17 years.
