BOOK SYNOPSIS

This user-friendly and comprehensive resource provides over 50 reproducible forms and numerous intervention procedures founded in evidence-based research and standards. Forms and interventions have been developed and successfully applied in clinical work with children and adolescents having a wide range of diagnoses, including AD/HD, autism spectrum disorders, mood disorders, oppositional defiant disorder, and anxiety disorders. The book is divided into three sections: Problem Identification, Measurement and Functional Behavior Assessment, and Interventions. Includes case examples and numerous completed sample forms, as well as a companion CD of all the printable forms.
